All property sold under this agreement is offered for sale "as is, where is" and without recourse against Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory, Lawrence Livermore National Security, or Government. Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory does not sell hazardous waste as scrap. Parts containing oil are routinely drained before scrapping; however, from time to time these parts may contain a small amount of oil film or residue.

Important Information to Bidders:

Bidders are cautioned to bid only on those items they are prepared to pay for and remove in accordance with the terms and conditions of the sale. Bidders may attend bid opening if desired. All items are awarded to the highest bidder and must be paid for and removed within the time period specified in the notice of award. LLNL reserves the right not to award bids if the bids are deemed below a reasonable amount. The bidder agrees that in the event he/she fails to pay for the property, or remove the property within the prescribed period of time, they shall lose all rights, title and interest, which might otherwise have been acquired in and to such property, unless other arrangements have previously been made with LLNL.

Site Access Requirements:

All personnel and vehicles will be subject to search. Site access will be refused if they are: (1) not U.S. citizens, (2) in possession of any prohibited items (alcoholic beverages; illegal drugs; explosives; firearms or other dangerous weapons, instruments or materials; binoculars or telescopes; cameras; recording devices; pepper spray or mace; etc.), or (3) accompanied by companions or pets.
